

If you liked Bear Feels Sick, then you'll enjoy:

Wash Your Hands! Written by Tony Ross

La Jolla, CA: Kane/Miller Book Publishers 2000

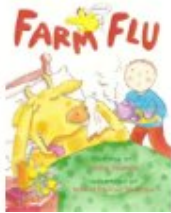

The little Princess is told by all her family and staff that she must wash her hands after playing outside, using the potty, and playing with pets before she can eat a piece of cake.

Growing Vegetable Soup written and illustrated by Lois Ehlert

Harpers Ferry, WV: Voyager Books, 1990

Healthy eating is central while children learn their vegetables in this colorful book.

Farm flu written by Teresa Bateman; illustrated by Nadine

Bernard Westcott.

Morton Grove, Ill.: Albert Whitman, 2001.

When the farm animals seem to catch the flu one after another, a young boy does his best to take care of them.

Madeline written and illustrated by Ludwig Bemelmans.

New York: Viking Press, 1960, 1939.

Madeline, smallest and naughtiest of the twelve little charges of Miss Clavel, wakes up one night with an attack of appendicitis.

Mother Mother I Feel Sick, Send for the Doctor, Quick Quick

Quick by Remy Charlip & Burton Supree; with pictures by Remy Charlip.
Berkeley: Tricycle Press, 2001.

An extraordinary stomachache is cured when a doctor removes a large number of strange objects from the victim's stomach. Includes instructions for performing the story as a shadow play.

The Get Well Soon Book: Good Wishes for Bad Times by Kes

Gray & Mary McQuillan.

Brookfield, CT : The Millbrook Press, 2000.

Cynthia the centipede, Harold the hamster, Tiffany the turtle, and other animals suffer from various injuries or illnesses.

One Cow Coughs: A Counting Book for the Sick and Miserable. Story by Christine Loomis; pictures by Pat Dypold.

New York: Ticknor & Fields Books for Young Readers, 1994.

Animals count from one to ten and back down again as they show symptoms of illness and then, after taking care of themselves, feel better again.

Dear Daisy, Get Well Soon by Maggie Smith.

New York: Crown Publishers, 2000.

When his friend Daisy gets sick, Peter sends her more gifts each day of the week until she feels better.

The Sick-in-Bed Birthday by Linda Wagner Tyler; illustrated by Susan Davis.

New York: Viking Kestrel, 1988.

When the nurse sends Tucky Pig home from school on the day of his birthday party, he is convinced that this will be the worst birthday he's ever had.